

Wildwood Express

The Wildwood Express band was formed in 1971 by Lou Stiver and Bob Eakin. Lou Stiver (mandolin) resides in Polk PA. Bob Eakin (banjo) lives in Franklin PA. David "Jr" Miller (guitar) lives near Sheakleyville. "Jr" first joined the band in 1983.

David James, (bass fiddle) joined the Wildwood Express several months after the band was formed in 1971. Dave lives in New Lebanon PA.

The Wildwood Express has been performing for audiences at fairs and festivals in the PA, OH, and WV. area as well as Ontario Canada. The bluegrass style they present is considered traditional. A typical Wildwood Express stage show is highlighted by three and four part harmonies, instrumentals, and gospel. The Wildwood Express have three CD recordings available. For bookings, call or write:

Louis Stiver PO box 61 Polk PA 16342 814-432-4088 lerestiver@verison.net