

Rule 1306 Award.

The arbitrators shall file their award within seven (7) days after the completion of the arbitration hearing. Arbitrators who fail to file the award as required by this rule may forfeit their fees. The arbitrators may consider the subject of damages for delay after an award has been made in accordance with Pa.R.C.P. 238. Any such delay damages shall be added to the principal amount awarded, but shall be separately stated on the report and award.
